Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information submitted at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 31 year old male born in Rio Grande City, Texas. He lived in Mexico with his parents as a small child and has lived in Starr County, Texas since 1994. He reports that he commutes between Houston for work and his wife and two children in Starr County. His parents are citizens and residents of Mexico. He has a sister who lives in Roma, Texas. Prior to his arrests, defendant was employed by Ready Construction as a cement laborer making $2,400 per month. Defendant owns property in and has strong family ties to Mexico.
2. Defendant is charged with drug trafficking offenses, including conspiracy and distribution of 1000 kilograms or more of marijuana. He faces a potential penalty range of 10 years to life imprisonment .
3. Defendant has a prior conviction for driving while intoxicated, and two prior arrests for possession of marijuana, the most recent of which may be related to the instant offense.
4. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
